Joint Services Held For Fire Victims

Joint funeral services were held Sunday at 3 p. m. for Joe Lara, Sr., 25, and his son, Joe, Jr., 9 months old. Both were victims of a fire that destroyed their home Saturday.

Services were held in the Chapel of Green's Funeral Home with interment in Hernandez Cemetery.

Surviving Joe Lara, Jr. are his mother Mrs. Benito Lara and one sister Eva Lara of Cameron.

Father, 25, Infant Son ...

Two Die In House Blaze

A roaring fire burned to death a father and his infant son, hospitalized his wife and daughter and completely destroyed the four room frame house on Rusk Street in Southwest Cameron.

Firemen found the bodies of Joe Lara, 25, and his son, Joe, Jr., 9 months old, in the ruins.

Escaping from the fire without injury was Selza Salazar, 17, a sister of Mrs. Joe Lara, Sr.

A staff physician at Newton Memorial Hospital reported that the 2 year old daughter was in fine condition and the mother is fair. Mrs. Lara is still being fed by intravenous injection he said. She suffered burns on both arms, back and chest. The daughter suffered second degree burns on the back.

Miss Salazar told The Herald this story.

She and Mrs. Lara returned from the night shift at the Texan Cafe and had gone to sleep with the two children.

Joe Lara came in from his job with the city and asked if there was any word outside. Miss Salazar said there was and went back to sleep.

He came in and started to build the fire. He was pouring some kerosene into the stove when it burst into flames, apparently from hot coals in the stove.

She said that the explosion felt as if something hit her real hard. She also saw the husband put his hand over his eyes.

He yelled, "Bennie, water!"

about three times and apparently ran into the kitchen. Miss Salazar ran out of the house and went to Cruz Reyes' home to call the fire department.

Meanwhile Mrs. Lara started out of the house. Miss Salazar said "My sister had the boy and girl in her hands but something pushed the baby (boy) out." Mrs. Lara ran to tell her mother who lived about a block away that the baby was still in the house. At that time she thought that her husband was out of the house.

The two were taken to Newton Memorial Hospital for treatment. High winds plus a 20 degree temperature with blowing snow hampered firemen's efforts. The house was engulfed in flames when the first firemen arrived.

A house next door belonging to Horace Hudson was slightly damaged as the heat melted the artificial brick siding on the house. But the house was upwind from the fire and firemen were able to spray it before it could start burning.

About 20 minutes after the firemen arrived, the fire was out. They were able to enter the house and make the search for the bodies. They found Lara in the kitchen and the volunteer firemen found the body of the son in the front room apparently where the mother had last contact.

Damage to the house was about $1,000. It was partly covered by insurance.

Council Okays Downtown Marks

The City Council Tuesday voted to remark the downtown parking places and heard routine reports from department heads on progress of paving and sewerline extension projects.

City Sec. Buddy Fuller noted that incumbent Councilman Stanrett Hickman had filed for re-election and J. C. "Jimmy" Marek, of Cameron, had filed for Place 5 on the Council, now held by incumbent Councilman John A. Smith.

Council Places 3, 4, and 5 are up for election in the April 2 city vote. E. L. Wied holds the other Council post to be considered. Filing deadline is March 2.

Mayor Coleman Duncan told the Council that the new signal light at Fourth and Travis has been repaired after moisture had caused it to malfunction for a number of days last week.

A control unit was replaced, but three hours later went out. A special bulb was installed, the mayor said, to reduce moisture. Manufacturers of the light reported in a telephone conversation with Mayor Duncan that a special check would be made if the light continues to malfunction.

City Public Works Supt. J. B. Earle reported that grading work is "being done on West Sixth St. prior to a two - coat penetration paving from the Southern Pacific tracks west to Orchard Street, a length of seven blocks.

He also noted working on plot plans for the Culpepper Addition.

Water Supt. Alvin Heft noted that seven of 22 prospective new water connections have been completed in West Cameron. He also reported that 625 feet more of 6 - inch sewerline has been installed in the vicinity of West Sixth St. and Colfax.

Mayor Duncan recommended that yellow stripes be repainted in the downtown area. A new system of double striping has been suggested to make more room for wider cars in the angle parking areas.

Equalization Board nominees were considered but no one has yet accepted appointment, officials said.

14 - Year Battle

TB Fight Ends

A letter to an official of the Milam County TB Association tells of the successful conclusion to a Rockdale youth's 14 year battle with tuberculosis.

Awaiting release from a Denver, Colo., hospital, the Rockdale youth, now 22, writes of his immediate hopes for future employment to Mrs. F. K. Hyder, treasurer of the Milam TB Association.

A diagnosis of primary tuberculosis was made when the boy was 8 years old. By March, 1954, he had been admitted for hospital treatment.

He was hospitalized over the next five years in the State TB Hospital, Tyler, and in January, 1960, was transferred to Colorado Scottish Hospital.

It was three more years before he could write his humble, yet triumphant letter to Mrs. Hyder, who along with other officials of the Milam TB organization shared the young man's joy.

"I didn't think I would ever get well enough to work, but thanks to the National Jewish Hospital staff and the Good Lord, I did and now to work," he wrote.

"Please notify the TB Association of my discharge and thank them for me for the help they gave me while in the hospital. I thank you very much for being so very nice."

"... it makes me feel real good to know that I'm finally going to stand on my own two feet like everybody else. They may be a little weak, but give me time and we'll see."

The letter was written January 4. He was awaiting prospects for a job as an out - patient, and was planning to get some training for a job.

Funds from the Milam TB Association were used for the youth's treatment since he was 8.

One official said: "People sometime wonder where the money goes that they give to different philanthropies. Here is one good example."

Equalization Discussed

Valuation Plan Gets Review

Maaburn Harris, general manager of Southwestern Appraisal Co., of Dallas and Stamford, this week, addressed five different groups on the proposed school district property valuation.

Harris and Supt. Charles Zeigler, who introduced him, explained the method proposed for the district equalization program and the need for tax monies to maintain the present school operation and improve it.

Each program was opened up for questions after Harris described the basis and methods for the equalization program. Groups hearing the information program thus far are: Cameron school faculties, joint meeting of Cameron Rotary and Lions Clubs, combined meeting of 19 Cameron women's club and a public meeting Wednesday night.

Harris said, in about a 20 - minute talk at each meeting, that his organization, not yet contracted to do this job, had completed 75 to 80 equalization programs in Texas school districts.

15-15-70 RATIO

His experience showed that about 15 per cent of property valuations would be lowered, 15 per cent would be about the same and that 70 per cent would increase.

Citing the failure of most districts' not keeping up with property values, Harris said that his organization would do a complete description of about 5300 parcels of property, sketching off buildings on cards and measuring land. Different cards are used for rural property, urban property and commercial buildings.

He said figures start with re - placement cost of the property, measured against a national average of market price and allowing for local differences. Then depreciation of the building is considered particularly a functional depreciation for older houses.

Other considerations are made for both land and property. Land is classified by grade as is housing or commercial property. These factors affect lowering or increasing land values, he said.

Aerial map

An aerial map of the school district is then made, showing each unit of property. Harris said that an incomplete survey of property values on the Cameron District rolls shows a spread of valuations of from 5 per cent to 100 per cent.

"Not everyone will be happy," he told Cameron teachers Tuesday "but it will work."

He said real estate and land will be included in the equalization program, but not on personal property such as bank accounts, store inventories or household furnishings.

He said a crew of 16 to 18 people will be involved in measuring land and accounting procedures.

Cost of the survey of the 260 - square - mile district will be $24,600, Supt. Zeigler said. It would be payable in two payments starting November 1 and the second December 1. A contract has not yet been completed with the firm.

"We are appraisers, not assessors," Harris said.

FIRST STEP TO

FOUNDATION

The Cameron Chamber board of directors Friday unanimously approved a four and one - half page set of by - laws for the city's first industrial foundation.

Reviewed last week by the Chamber industrial and public relations committees, the by - laws underwent considerable revision prior to Chamber board approval last Friday.

Established as a non - profit organization to boost industrial development in Cameron and vicinity, the Cameron Industrial Foundation will be separate from the Cameron Chamber and self - sustaining when shares are purchased by the public and officers are elected, Chamber President E. O. Schiller, Jr. reported.

A complete copy of the by - laws of the new organization will appear in next week's edition of The Herald. Reprints, if desired, will be available at the Cameron Chamber's downtown office.

Work on the foundation by - laws began last fall and the first draft was sent to Chamber industrial and public relations committees. The group met for a final word - by - word review of by - laws two weeks ago.

The Foundation by - laws call for the election of a 15 - man board of directors, sale of $100 shares in the Foundation and outline responsibilities of both directors, officers and members.

In their Chamber board action, a revised constitution and by - laws for the Cameron Chamber of Commerce also was approved.

And Narvie Caperton, Cameron businessman and civic leader, was presented a plaque for the Chamber's appreciation of his civic efforts through the years. He and Mrs. Caperton are going to Washington, D. C. February 1 where he will begin duties as assistant to Cong. W. R. Poage, 11th Congressional District representative.

Cameron Youth To Enter Livestock In Ft. Worth Show

FORT WORTH — Brent Laywell of Cameron will have four junior show lambs in competition at the 1963 Fort Worth Stock Show, January 25 through February 3, Livestock Superintendent W. A. (Bill) King has reported.

Johnny R. Richter of Cameron will have three barrows in the Fort Worth Show.

The nation's oldest major livestock show will present approximately 10,000 head of livestock, including 12 breeds of cattle, 10 breeds of sheep and eight of swine. Entries have come from three-fourths of the United States and Mexico.

The horse division of the Fort Worth show, again featuring the largest Quarter Horse show in the world, will see approximately 1,500 entries compete. An Appaloosa sale and classes for Galiceno horses will be new to the show.

Nearly 400 top cowboys will tackle the roughest stock from three major rodeo producers in bareback and saddle bronc riding, bull riding, calf roping and steer wrestling.

Depreciation On Farm Animals

COLLEGE STATION — The livestock producer who does not figure depreciation on the livestock that he purchases is missing a good means of conserving capital, says C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Since much of the large capital investment required in the business of farming can be recovered by the taxpayer through depreciation, attention should be given to the present tax provisions, according to Bates.

The 1962 income tax law contains important changes affecting farmers and ranchmen. New suggested useful lives for some classes of property are among them. A three-year period will be allowed for shifting to the new guidelines Bates says. The biggest change is that for farm building life which has been changed from 40 years to 25 years. Bates says that the useful life for cattle has been changed from 8 to 7 years on purchased animals.

Claims for depreciation should be made annually because it cannot be taken for years passed up, Bates explains.

The taxpayer can increase his potential capital gains from livestock sales by properly handling depreciation and the new tax law did not change capital gains on livestock. According to Bates, one of the first requirements is the setting of reasonable salvage value on animals purchased. The remainder may be "written off" as depreciation which then is regained when the old animals are sold.

The new "1963 Farmers Tax Guide" is now available at the offices of county agents and Bates suggests that farmers and ranchmen pick up a copy at their earliest convenience. It's chuck - full, he adds, of important information.

Booster Club Holds Meeting

The regular meeting of the Yoemen Booster Club was held 7:30 p. m. Monday at the Vocational Agriculture Building of Yoe High School.

After a short business session, the members watched the last quarter of the Junior High basketball game won by the Cameron Yoe-Yoes over A & M Consolidated.

After the Junior High game Coach John Roberts demonstrated the new Isometric exercise installation purchased by the Booster Club for the use of the Athletic Department and Physical Education classes. He explained the advantages of this system over the weight lifting program for building muscles and body development.

He also displayed the boxing gloves and protective head gear which will be used in the physical training program at the school.

After the meeting adjourned back to the Ag Building, Coach Joe Davis showed a basketball training film and a film of the Cameron - Rogers game played earlier this year. He commented on the progress being made by this year's Yoemen basketball team and gave a scouting report on the A&M Consolidated team.

The next meeting of the Yoemen Booster Club will be held February 4 at 7:30 p. m. in the Ag Building. All members of the Booster Club are urged to attend this meeting.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Science Club, Advanced Slide Rule Club, Future Farmers of America and the Future Homemakers of America held their individual meetings during the week.

Yoe Loses To Cons.

Using a full court press to gain a twenty point lead early in the game A & M Consolidated dropped the Yoemen 78-25 in a foul laden game.

The Yoemen could not hit as Coach Joe Davis cleared the bench to attempt to find a working combination. The game ended with four freshmen on the floor for the Yoemen.

Charles Gandy led Coach Jack Churchill's Tigers as he stole the ball on the press to score four field goals in the first quarter and then go on to lead the Tigers with 15 points.

Merlin Lester was high for the Yoemen with six points. Mack McKinney was second with four.

Davis felt that he was getting better effort out of the younger boys in the game as they slowed the Tiger scoring down but were unable to stop the experienced Tigers.

The Consolidated team led 42-10 at the half time.

Officials said that the 40 odd fouls came from the use of the full court press. They said that they did not call the game any closer than usual. Fourteen fouls were called in the first eight minutes of play.

A REPLY to Cameron.

Nothing is as sweet as victory nor is anything as bitter as defeat.

The Rockdale varsity deserves credit for a fine performance in their victory over the Yoemen. The only criticism one might have of the Cameron - Rockdale game is poor sportsmanship - not on the part of any of the players, coaches or officials but of a Rockdale sports writer.

In his story, in which he attempted to demonstrate his clever forceful writing, he merely showed lack of tact and diplomacy.

The people of Cameron can be proud of the fact that our coverage of the preceding nights game, which was also as one sided but in Cameron's favor, was above insulting our neighbors.

Cameron has good teams coming up in the lower grades and these boys have ability and the desire to have a good team. We must get behind these boys and give them the encouragement to stay with the program.

A Yoemen Booster

The preceding night's game he is referring to was the game between the Jr. Hi. teams in which the Cameron 8th grade won 51-26. The Yoemen lost 59-26 which was an eight point difference and perhaps the difference between a losing team and "possibly the most pathetic" team.

The Rockdale Reporter did not carry the story of the Jr. Hi loss.

CIF's Approval Significant Move . . .

Approval of a four and a half page document last week set a new tone in Cameron's quest for industry.

The by-laws of Cameron's and Milam's first Industrial Foundation drew unanimous approval of the Cameron Chamber board of directors. The vote followed incorporation of a number of amendments by the Chamber's industrial committee. It was the culmination of about six months work by a panel of lawyers and businessmen who drafted the Foundation's outline for the CofC industrial committee's and the Chamber board's review.

The framework for a concentration on industrial development is now built. It is for the residents of Cameron to use it as a springboard to additional economic development of this historic city.

The Cameron Industrial Foundation will be separate from its creator, the Cameron Chamber, and when financed by public purchase of shares in the Cameron of tomorrow, will be self-sustaining.

Many communities of Cameron's size have designed similar foundations and boosted them to success in industrial development. Their secret has been continuous work in competing for industry. Their support has come from many people who share confidence in the future of their community, area and state.

Cameron's step forward is in time with a Texas-wide awakening to the value of industry. Political leaders like Gov. John Connally, Texas industrial expert such as Harry Clark, area development men like A&M's Reagan Brown continue to urge all of small-town Texas to take the initiative in industrial development.

Cameron is not alone in this major competition for industry nor is it unaided in its quest for necessary growth. It has the stability, the strength, the talent to accept the "challenge of choice" as Brown told a Chamber group a few weeks ago. Indeed, Cameron has accepted this challenge in innumerable community improvements in the past five years. Indeed, these achievements in so many basic services and facilities are as much a reason for confidence in additional industrialization as any.

We believe the efforts of outlining an Industrial Foundation's by-laws will be rewarded with renewed enthusiasm for industrial growth.

Dateline Austin—

Being Governor 'Should Be Snap'

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN — Serving as Governor of Texas should be a snap for John Connally.

Any man who can wage a rigorous, 12 months campaign for Governor, such as he has done, reorganize the state government, plan and participate in all the ceremonies he has been through since his election and inauguration, and assume all the allied responsibilities related thereto, should find the task of being governor a cinch.

It seemed like half of Texas was in Austin to see the first mass turnover in state government since Jimmy Allred took over from "Ma" Ferguson in 1935.

Man of the hour was, of course, John Connally! Bus loads of people, both from his old hometown of Floresville and his latest hometown of Fort Worth, came to Austin for the festivities that surrounded his inauguration as governor. Most of them were here by inauguration eve when nearly 5,000 people packed Austin's Municipal Auditorium for the Democrat's "Victory Dinner", rated as the big guest seated dinner in the state's history. It was sponsored by the State Democratic Executive Committee. At $25 a plate, it netted the party $100,000 and put it on its feet, well-heeled.

Inauguration Day led off with an interdenominational prayer breakfast and the dignity of the day carried over to the high-noon swearing-in ceremony in front of the State Capitol.

Some 5,000 people clustered on the Capitol lawn as Governor Connally and Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith solemnly took their oaths of office from Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert of the State Supreme Court.

Both Connally and Smith expressed a sincerity of purpose and a real desire to work with the 58th Legislature in pushing progress for the state while holding down spending.

Throughout Inaugural Day, Texas' two top men kept popping up in unexpected places — arriving early for ceremonies and dropping in at events related to the inauguration. They shook every extended hand and signed as many autographs as time allowed.

At seven in the evening they took their places, alongside their wives, in a Capitol rotunda receiving line and shook thousands more hands with unremitting enthusiasm.

When Governor Connally presented his plan for progress to a joint meeting of Senate and House members, on the following day, he was met with applause that many legislators felt never had been equaled. Majority of the legislators said that they felt they could support him "most of the way." All praised his "tremendous grasp of state government," and said if there were differences between the governor and the legislature, such differences could be worked out.

Many were pleased to see Connally urge the strengthening of family sanctity laws. He recommended: An end to common-law marriages; a 90-day waiting period for divorces, prohibiting remarriages until six months after a divorce; and requiring both parents to appear in court when a divorce involves children.

His views on upgrading higher education were approved almost unanimously. But there was quite a bit of disapproval to combine the Game and Fish Commission and the State Parks Board. Opposition was based largely on the idea that the Game and Fish Commission would suffer.

EQUAL RIGHTS

The perennial battle for women's equal rights will hit the limelight in the Texas Senate early in the 58th Legislative session.

Senate constitutional amendments committee set public hearing for 7 p. m., January 30, on a proposal to give women equal legal rights, proposed constitutional amendment was submitted by Sens. W. T. Moore of Bryan and Bill Patman of Ganado.

VOTE AGE TARGET

Rep. V. E. "Red" Berry of San Antonio wants the minimum voting age in Texas lowered to 18 years.

Berry has filed a bill which would propose a constitutional amendment allowing the Legislature to make the change.

Present law requires voters to be 21 years of age.

COST CUTTING BILL

A bill to create a commission to study ways to cut costs of Texas government is on file in the House of Representatives.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria said his bill would create a "little Hoover" commission composed of 12 members. Three members would come from the House, three from the Senate, and six would be appointed by Governor Connally, who also has recommended formation of the Commission.

Cory said his bill has been passed by the House on five different occasions but never passed the Senate.

STOCKMEN RAISING FUNDS

Texas Livestock Auction Association is sponsoring a drive to help raise the $1,000,000 still needed to meet the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation's $3,000,000 goal to stamp out the screw-worm.

Texas' screwworm eradication program will come to a halt in March unless the million is raised. Governor Connally recommended that the legislature quickly determine whether the screwworm eradication program is in trouble. Result was a hurriedly called hearing, attended by about 30 legislators and as many livestock producers and animal health officials.

Eradication supporters told legislators that the program reduced screwworms by 70 to 90 per cent very first year, but the $5,000,000 to date will be wasted unless the job is finished. It is viewed as a three-year program.

Three-fifths of the money spent as far has come from federal funds and two-fifths from the livestock producers.

The $12,000,000 program is a true matching one. Uncle Sam will continue his payments toward the $6,000,000 he promised, so long as the producers and the state combined are matching in payments. So far, the state has paid nothing into the program. But the Texas Animal Health Commission has urged an immediate appropriation of $1,400,000.

Governor Connally has stated that he would ask for such an emergency appropriation if the legislature learns that the program is in danger.

SMALL TOWN BOOST PROPOSED

U. S. Congressman Wright Patman's worry that an "overwhelming percentage of the smaller towns and rural areas of East Texas are going downhill" is shared by at least two legislators.

Reps. Joe Cannon of Mexia and H. G. Wells of Tulsa spread their concern over economic ills in East Texas to rural areas all over the state. And they have come up with a scheme to bolster the moral and economy of rural counties.

Under their plan, counties with less than 45,000 population would receive a two per cent refund of the sales tax collected by them. This money would go to county judges, who in turn would distribute it to city councils to be used to advertise for new industries and offer incentives to industry.

Wells estimated that 200 counties would be eligible to receive a sales tax rebate, and that $1,000,000 would be distributed the first year.

Main object, Wells said, would be to save counties which recently had some prosperous small towns but which have suffered from being bypassed by highways or from an exodus of citizens who have moved to metropolitan areas.

IMPACT IN SUPREME COURT

Waggoner Carr made his first appearance before the State Supreme Court as attorney general when the high court heard the case of the state versus the city of Impact. Impact is a satellite of "dry" Abilene which proposes to operate "wet."

Carr made a brief argument for the state, but turned the major presentation over to Tom Eplen of Abilene and former State Senator Clint C. Small, who have worked on the case for about three years.

MARCH DRAFT 404

Texas' March quota for draftees is 404 men.

"This is more than double the calls of recent months," says State Selective Service Director Col. Morris S. Schwartz.

February quota was 173 and the January call was for 163 men.

OATH TAKEN

Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro has been sworn in as Texas' Secretary of State.

Ceremonies were held in the Texas Senate where he served for 14 years.

He took the oath as the first constitutional state official appointed by Governor Connally.

Oath was administered by Chief Justice Robert W. Calvert of the Supreme Court.

THE OLD PHILOSOPHER

Philosopher Warns Newspaper Strike Should Be Ended Before It Gets Embarrassing

Dear editor:

I have a ticklish subject to discuss this week, as you will see when you read a little further.

As I understand it, New York City has been without any newspapers for over a month now due to a strike, and it is my opinion the thing ought to be settled quickly before it's too late.

The reason it ought to be settled is that if it's not, those New York publishers may find themselves in the same boat with us farmers — they may find there were too many in the first place.

Understand, I'm not saying the nine dailies in New York aren't needed, still at the same time, the last thing a newspaper wants to do is to give its readers an opportunity to get along without it. A newspaper is a valuable asset to a town, don't see many good towns without one, but it's a truth that should be hammered away at constantly, not put to a month-long newspaper-less test just to find out.

It's sort of like a man with a good job in a big company. He's needed all right, he earns his salary, but it's not a good idea to take off for six months to prove how essential he is. The firm might survive without him.

Farmers know they're essential if the country is to keep eating, but you aren't going to catch me shutting down this Johnson grass farm to put the thing to a test.

By the way, to change the subject, did you know that Mr. Khrushchev is now wearing shirts with French cuff links and has his son-in-law on the government payroll? And that Castro is still smoking long cigars and eating well, regardless of how the rest of the Cubans are making out? Human nature is hard to put down, when it can get its hands on the money.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

A FLAG IS BORN

In a little home in Philadelphia the ideas of several American patriots were made a reality by the nimble fingered seamstress, Betsey Ross, and a flag was born, emblem of a nation that was in the process of formation. It was a beautiful emblem and it came to mean much to the oppressed; to those seeking a land where there would be opportunity for all. The Nation that flag symbolizes has had many trials and has faced grave perils. It has had other things besides armed might to sustain it. Its leaders have relied upon prayer. Washington at Valley Forge, Lincoln after Antietam, prayed and the Nation came through. If prayers availed in the past they will serve in these critical times.

Regular attendance at your favorite church will aid in establishing the right relationship with the Creator so that our continued prayers will avail.

W - 2 Forms Must Be

Issued By January 31

Internal Revenue Service reminds that Employees should receive two copies of a Withholding Statement, Form W-2, on or before Thursday, January 31, 1963 from employers.

A. P. Andrews, administrative Officer of the Internal Revenue Service at Tempis said, "This statement shows the total wages paid and the income tax and social security tax withheld if any, during the calendar year 1962."

Total wages shown on an employee's W-2 must include amounts received as sick pay from his employer, even though no tax has been withheld on such sick pay. Sick pay is not required to be shown separately.

If it becomes necessary to correct a W-2 after it has been given to an employee, a revised statement must be issued and marked "corrected by employer."
